Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Safe Harbor Children's Center, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2019 and 2018, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Safe Harbor Children's Center, Inc. as of June 30, 2019 and 2018, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matters

Other Information

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards, as required by Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, is presented for the purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated November 8, 2019, on our consideration of Safe Harbor Children's Center, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering Safe Harbor Children's Center, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

Founded in 1991, Safe Harbor Children's Center, Inc. (The Center) is a state licensed emergency shelter facility for 24 children located in Brunswick, Georgia. The Center's mission is to provide shelter and therapeutic services to children any age under 18 who have been abused, abandoned or neglected; who are homeless or have run away from home; or who are otherwise at risk or feel threatened. During the spring of 2017, construction was completed on the new 22,000 square foot campus which features separate, two-story wings for 12 boys and 12 girls, with a dedicated living room for each wing. Each child shares a room with their own closet connected by a shared bathroom. The children share dining and kitchen space, a tutoring area and computer room, all located on the first floor. A playground, picnic area, and community garden provide outdoor attraction for the children. The adjacent administrative building houses an art studio for the children as well as office for the staff.

Zach's Place: Runaway & Homeless Youth Shelter (RHY) is an emergency shelter that provides for the immediate needs of runaway and homeless youth in Glynn County, Georgia. Through RHY, children receive the encouragement, resources, and skills they need to make healthy choices regarding how they live, and ultimately secure the safe, stable, and supportive living arrangements they need to fulfill their potential and successfully contribute to society. The shelter, formerly used as the Center's main facility until the new building was completed, is a two-story home that includes eight beds (4 boys, 4 girls), two and a half baths, a large living room, study, dining room, kitchen, laundry area, family visitation area and activity center, as well as administrative offices for the staff.

The Safe Harbor Family Preservation program helps families alleviate crisis and maintain the safety of children in their own homes. The program includes in-home counseling, parent support and education, individual counseling, transportation, and childcare.

Street Beat is a street outreach program for reaching out to teens living on the streets. The program provides nutrition and hygiene kits, sexual exploitation literature, and provides support for those youth who want to come off the streets. The mission is to increase young people's safety, well-being and self-sufficiency and to help them build permanent connections with caring adults with the goal of getting off the streets.

The STRIVE Transitional Living Program fills a void in services for a very large portion of southeast Georgia: young homeless girls, ages 16 to 22. The group home has six beds, and supportive services with the goal of getting these girls off the streets. By helping them build permanent connections with caring adults, the hope is that these girls will become productive members of society. Transitional Living assists female clients for 18 months, to develop skills leading to self-sufficiency and independence, while providing a safe living environment.

Project Safe Place, an outreach of the Center, is designed to reach youth in the early stage of crisis. The program works by creating a network of "Safe Places", business and public locations that display the Safe Place logo on their premises. Any youth in trouble knows that he or she can enter a location bearing the sign and request help. An employee will provide the youth with a secure place to wait while the Center is contacted. The Center then dispatches a trained volunteer to the Safe Place site to offer assistance and provide transportation to the Center facility, if necessary. Any expenses associated with the Safe Place program are included with the Runaway & Homeless Youth expenses in the financial statements.

The Children's Advocacy Center serves victims of child abuse throughout the Brunswick Judicial Circuit, which includes the counties of Appling, Camden, Glynn, Jeff Davis, and Wayne. The Advocacy Center provides rehabilitative care to more than 300 child victims of sexual and/or severe physical abuse every year. Services through the Advocacy Center include forensic interviews, counseling, multidisciplinary review, victim's advocacy and crime victim's compensation program.

The Connie Smith Rape Crisis Center (CSRCC) provides services that are used in an effort to stabilize the lives of the victims and their families. They support their physical and emotional healing, and help them to return to healthy individual and family functioning, while assisting them through the judicial process. The CSRCC is one of the only 31 rape crisis centers in Georgia and one of few that are considered a full-service center, providing a nurse specializing in sexual assault exams, counselors who offer individual and group therapy and other services.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Center considers all highly liquid investments available for current use with an initial maturity of twelve months or less to be cash equivalents.

Investments

Investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at their fair values in the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets. Investment income and gains restricted by a donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets if the restrictions are met (either by passage of time or by use) in the reporting period in which the income and gains are recognized.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Income Taxes

The Safe Harbor Children's Center, Inc. is a non-profit Georgia corporation exempt from Federal and State income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is classified as other than a private foundation. Therefore, no provision or liability for income tax is reflected in the accompanying financial statements.

Contributions

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions.

All donor-restricted support is reported as an increase in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending upon the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Donated Services

No amounts have been reflected in the financial statements for donated services for the year ended June 30, 2019. For the year ended June 30, 2018, the Center received $12,100 in donated construction services and are recorded in the financial statements. In addition, the Center receives a significant amount of donated services from unpaid volunteers who serve as mentors, chaperones, tutors and such. These volunteer hours do not meet the criteria for recognition as contributed services.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS
BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH *GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

Board of Directors
Safe Harbor Children's Shelter, Inc.
Brunswick, Georgia

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of Safe Harbor Children's Shelter, Inc., which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2019 and 2018, and the related statement of activities, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated November 8, 2019.

Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audits of the financial statements, we considered Safe Harbor Children's Shelter, Inc.'s internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Safe Harbor Children's Shelter, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Safe Harbor Children's Shelter, Inc.'s financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit and, accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and considering the Organization's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT ON COMPLIANCE
FOR EACH MAJOR PROGRAM AND ON INTERNAL CONTROL
OVER COMPLIANCE REQUIRED BY THE UNIFORM GUIDANCE

Board of Directors
Safe Harbor Children’s Shelter, Inc.
Brunswick, Georgia

Report of Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited Safe Harbor Children’s Shelter, Inc.’s compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of Safe Harbor Children’s Shelter, Inc.’s major federal programs for the years ended June 30, 2019 and 2018. Safe Harbor Children’s Shelter, Inc.’s major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditor’s results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management’s Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of its federal awards applicable to its federal programs.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for each of Safe Harbor Children’s Shelter, Inc.’s major federal programs based on our audits of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audits of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about Safe Harbor Children’s Shelter, Inc.’s compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. However, our audits do not provide a legal determination on Safe Harbor Children’s Shelter, Inc.’s compliance.

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

In our opinion, Safe Harbor Children’s Shelter, Inc. complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the years ended June 30, 2019 and 2018.

Report on Internal Control over Compliance

Management of Safe Harbor Children's Shelter, Inc. is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audits of compliance, we considered Safe Harbor Children's Shelter, Inc.'s internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for each major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of Safe Harbor Children's Shelter, Inc.'s internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.
